TESTIMONIALS.
Dr. Jackson's Opinion of the XL Phosphate.
WILLIAM L. BRADLEY, Esq., Dear Sir:—You ask my opinion, as derived from my chemical analysis of your XL Super-Phosphate, and from my knowledge of the science of Agriculture, as to the value of this Super-Phosphate as a fertilizer.
No one who knows anything of the science, can doubt that such an article will prove of great value, and that it is adapted to supply the most essential substances removed from the soil by our usual crops and that it supplies these articles to the soil which are sparingly found in it in its natural state.
Respectfully, your obedient servant,
CHARLES T. JACKSON, M. D.,
State Assayer.
Dr. A. A. Hayes' Opinion.
In my trials, the fermenting power of this fertilizer has proved quite as great as that of the best Peruvian Guano, and its action on humic matters in the soil is fully equal; it colors the aqueous solutions; contains fatty bodies and products as well as salts of ammonia. This part forms from twenty-five to twenty-eight per cent. of the compound.
Not only has the precaution of having analyses of the materials and weekly products been taken, but the same care has been extended to the marketable article, and each lot of fifty tons is represented by an average sample, which is accompanied by a certificate of its composition, carefully determined.
The reputation this compound has obtained, as a manure and fertilizer, renders the manufacture an important one, and the present management should receive, as it deserves, the confidence of the Agricultural interests of the country.
Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
State Assayer.
From Ex-Gov. Cony, of Maine.
AUGUSTA, ME., May 1, 1867.
MR. WM. L. BRADLEY, Sir:—Last summer I purchased a quantity of Super-Phosphate of Lime of your manufacture of Mr. John McArthur; I applied it with the most manifest effect, and received most satisfactory results. It was equal to any fertilizer of its class ever used by me, and I can confidently recommend it as of great agricultural utility. I shall continue to use it quite largely.
Respectfully yours,
SAMUEL CONY.
From Ex-Gov. Holbrook, of Vermont.
BRATTLEBORO', VT., May 2, 1867.
W. L. BRADLEY, Esq., Dear Sir:—I used your Super-Phosphate last year in every part of my garden and grounds, and in every instance with most satisfactory results.
Beyond all question, you make a superior Super-Phosphate, equal to all you claim for it, and, indeed, more too. Very respectfully yours,
E. HOLBROOK.
From Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.
BROOKLYN, Feb. 7, 1867.
W. L. BRADLEY, Boston, Dear Sir:—I tried several barrels of your XL Super-Phosphate of Lime during the season of 1866, on my farm at Peekskill. The soil is a sandy loam, on a clay and gravel subsoil. I found it to be excellent upon all garden vegetables, peas, beets, lettuce, cabbages, &c.
The onions, of which I raised several acres, were so much influenced by it, that the difference between those which had received your Phosphate and those on which I had used another favorable brand was distinguishable at a long distance off. I used it upon grass with very satisfactory results.
My foreman, T. J. Turner, who more particularly noticed the detailed effects, speaks very highly of it.
If its quality is faithfully kept up to the standard, it cannot but satisfy every reasonable expectation.
HENRY WARD BEECHER.
From Deacon Hartwell B. Baker.
ALBION, Me., Dec. 27, 1866.
W. L. BRADLEY, Dear Sir:—I used one barrel of your XL Super-Phosphate last spring on corn and potatoes, side by side with barn-yard and hog manure. Where the XL was used I have 25 per cent. more corn and potatoes than I did with barn-yard and hog manure, and four times as much as I did where I used nothing. I shall always use XL, if I can get it, as I believe it to be the best Phosphate in the market, and this is the opinion of all who have used it, so far as I know.
HARTWELL B. BAKER.
From Rev. Stillman Morgan.
BRISTOL, VT., Oct. 1, 1866.
WM. L. BRADLEY, Dear Sir:—I used some of your XL Phosphate last spring, and it proved all it is recommended to be. When I learned what properties it contains, I had no hesitation as to its real value. Now, I intend to go into it as fast as circumstances will allow. I had some thoughts of telling you that it made vegetation grow on my land a yard to a jump. But one thing I will say, it is the best and cheapest manure that I have ever used.
STILLMAN MORGAN.
From Chief Clerk, Department of Agriculture.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 11, 1867.
I have used Bradley's Super-phosphate, and regard it as an excellent article. I began experiments in 1862, in Greenfield, Mass.; but owing to my leaving for Washington early in the fall, they were not concluded. I perceived a decided advantage in using it, especially in filling and ripening corn, in a former application.
JAMES S. GRINNELL,
Chief Clerk Department of Agriculture.
"I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best."
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 4, 1866.
MR. JOHN T. GILL, Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in recommending Bradley's XL Phosphate of Lime as being a good and cheap Fertilizer, having made use of the same on different crops. And having made use of different kinds, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best. GRISWOLD I. GILBERT.
Experiments with Manures.
E. R. Towle of West Berkshire, Vt., gives in the Vermont Farmer the following results of experiments with different kinds of manure on corn, the past season.
The land and cultivation was the same. The ground was an inverted greensward, lately mowed and the surface, and the fertilizers put in the hill. The following was the result when the corn was husked—each plot containing two rows through the fields:
Plot 1. No manure in the hill, 2½ baskets of ears of corn.
Plot 2. A compost consisting of hen manure, ashes, plaster, and earth, 2½ baskets.
Plot 3. Lodi Manufacturing Co.'s Poudrette 2½ baskets.
Plot 4. Rotten barn-yard manure, 4½ baskets.
Plot 5. Hog-manure, 5 baskets.
Plot 6. Bradley's Super-phosphate of Lime, 5 baskets.
The degree of soundness was in proportion to the yield, plot number 6 being the best.
ROYALTON, VT., Jan. 27, 1867.
WM. L. Bradley. Dear Sir:—I had a quantity of your Phosphate last year; it gave good satisfaction. Mr. O. Bruce tried it on a peice of oats with barn-yard manure; the PHOSPHATE made THE MANURE ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. He thinks he realized from the use of it on oats two hundred per cent.
Yours truly, J. W. METCALF.
UNITY, Me., Dec. 17, 1867.
WM. L. BRADLEY, Esq. Dear Sir:—The past season I used nine barrels of your XL Phosphate with good results. I planted about three acres of pasture land, using three barrels of Phosphate with other manure, and raised seven hundred and twenty-five bushels of potatoes. I tested it in three different parts of the field with other manures, with a difference in favor of the Super-phosphate, three and one quarter to two (3¼ to 2) or 62½ per cent in favor of Phosphate. I consider it a valuable fertilizer.
Yours truly, A. B. WORTH.

THE PRESS.

Tuesday Morning, June 4, 1867.

☞ First Page—British Colonial Matters; Reconstruction in Texas; The Next Presidency. Fourth Page—Parepa's Song, "Five o'clock in the morning"; a "Clever" One.

GENERAL GRANT AND THE PRESIDENCY.—To a single point in the Independent's article on "the Next President," copied elsewhere, we take exception. We do not believe Judge Cartler, or any other reasonable man, ever regarded it as possible that General Grant could allow his name to be used in the approaching Presidential canvass, by the Disunion party. General Grant is a soldier and avoids political discussion, but the distinction between the party which was for and the party which was against the war for the preservation of the Union, is one which as a soldier he could neither overlook nor forget. For the rest, we agree with the Independent, that the country needs now the services of a statesman in the Executive office. If that office were a sinecure, if the name of President were an honorary title to be conferred on deserving citizens, there is no man whom the American people would prefer to General Grant. The Presidential office is not a sinecure, but a post of labor and responsibility. Not even fidelity to the principles which the Republican party is striving to carry into effect, will alone establish a man's fitness to become the Republican candidate. We want that, but we want more; we must have a man whose tried fidelity has not evaporated in words; but has controlled the policy and shaped the history of the country. There will be work for a statesman, during the next administration, and we want a statesman to do it.

THE TWO PRESIDENTS.—The appeal of Mayor Monroe and his associates to President Davis to "accept the situation," and to President Johnson to "grant executive clemency to the said "Jefferson Davis," is one of the drollest documents which has lately been made public. Inasmuch as "the God of battles has decided against the Confederacy, and it is dead," these mild-voiced gentlemen are compelled to run the risk of hurting Mr. Davis's feelings by calling him the "late President," and we imagine this indiscreet admission of the actual truth will upset the whole scheme. Davis will decline to accept the situation, fall back upon his dignity and, as Mr. Nasby has predicted, "refuse to take holt of the government so long as there is even a technicle charge against him." His powerful influence will thus be lost to the Democratic party for some months to come.

MR. JOHNSON is making a very silent tour through the South, having learned a lesson last year. "Speech is silver, but silence is golden," says the proverb. The President's speeches, however, have been alloyed with copper; of his silence, we haven't yet had specimens enough for a satisfactory assay.—Yet it must be confessed that his resistance at Ashland, where he had both Henry Clay and Patrick Henry thrown in his teeth, was heroic.

THE IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY.—The Judiciary Committee has about concluded its labors for the present. The result of the investigation is thus summed up in a Washington dispatch to the Boston Advertiser:

The seven Republican members of the committee would undoubtedly agree in the strongest report of censure upon that President that could be drawn, but are divided on the question of impeachment. The charge or insinuation of Messrs. Ashley, Loan and Butler that Mr. Johnson is guilty of complicity in the assassination, has not been sustained. The evidence on that point is, in the opinion of at least seven members, entirely conclusive against the suspicion,—one of the most radical of them declaring that it wouldn't be received by an ordinary police justice. It must, however, be added on this point, that the President seems to have shown almost criminal negligence in not aiding the efforts to bring the conspirators in the great plot to punishment. He has done his utmost to further his reconstruction policy, but it cannot be learned that, since the hanging of Mrs. Surratt and her associates, he has ever given an order or made a suggestion calculated to further the work of unveiling the mystery of the infamous crime that culminated on the 14th of April, 1865. The evidence taken by the committee probably does not show that the President is guilty of receiving bribes or other direct considerations for pardons or favors of any kind, but it reveals an astonishing amount of corruption in every rank of the whole crowd of those who apparently have his favor in their control. Whether it has been conclusively shown that he is guilty of making a corrupt use of the pardoning power is not known, but it is very clear that in a few instances persons have found means for getting favorable action at his hands. While, as before stated, no vote has been taken in committee, it is thought that no injustice will be done in saying that Messrs. Boutwell, Lawrence and Williams are of opinion that articles of impeachment should be presented, and it is believed that Mr. Thomas inclines to this conclusion.

Base Ball—the Great Game for the Championship.

BOSTON, June 3, 1867.

To the Editor of the Press:

The closing game of the series for the championship, Harvard vs. Lowell, was played in Medford on Saturday afternoon, resulting in favor of the challenged party. Seventeen car loads of spectators went out from Boston on a special train early in the afternoon, and large numbers in addition came by other modes of conveyance. As many as 6000 were present, of which number a large proportion were ladies. The greatest interest was felt in this game which promised to be vigorously contested by both parties, and the friends of either club were alike confident of success. In front of the reporter's stand and close by the umpire, the famous Chadwick of base ball notoriety was sitting, busily taking notes for the sporting papers with which he is connected. It was nearly four o'clock before the game was called, much time being spent in clearing the field of excited spectators who were too anxious to obtain a close view of the playing. Lowell went first to the bat, and during the first three innings scored 11, the game at that point standing the same for both parties. On the next inning, however, an unlucky accident for the Lowells put Harvard far in advance and seriously affected the remainder of the game. Mr. Wilder, the Lowell catcher, while standing close up to the bat, received a violent blow in the face from a foul ball, which seemed likely to disable him for the remainder of the afternoon. He soon resumed his place, however, and the game went on. Harvard made 12 tallies on that inning and kept well ahead until the seventh opened, when the Lowells made a rush and came to within four runs of their opponents. But the result of the next two innings was fatal to the Lowell men, who scored a zero on both the eighth and ninth.

That the champion club should be defeated on the Olympic grounds is not at all to be wondered at, when the style of batting to which they are accustomed is taken into account. Like all first class players, they strike the ball close along the ground, giving what are called "daisy cutters." This kind of ball on a hard field, it is almost impossible to stop, and frequently secures to the striker a home run. But on a soft yielding ground like the Olympic, which is little better than an ordinary cow pasture, every such ball is picked up in the short field and sent immediately to the first base, putting out the striker to a dead certainty. Such was the case in the game of Saturday. Out of twenty-seven men, Shaw, the first base of the Harvard, put out twenty. The Lowell nine were not at home on such a field, where almost the only chance for display of skill was in throwing to the bases. It is much to be regretted that the shameful partiality of the silver ball committee should have caused this all important game to be played in a field totally unfit for the purpose. Great dissatisfaction was expressed by the spectators who came, many of them, from distant cities with the expectation of seeing a first class game played on first class grounds. With all disadvantages however, nothing could exceed the skill displayed by some of the Lowell nine.—Rogers, the centre field won for himself lasting honors during the game, and Wilder, even after he was so badly hurt, made some of the most impossible fly catches. At the close of the game every member of the Lowell nine was enthusiastically cheered, and great confidence was expressed in their ability to win back the ball at an early date.

Annual Meeting of the P. S. & P. R. R. Company.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad Company was held yesterday at Kittery.

The stockholders assembled in a new and commodious building recently erected by the corporation on the hill not far from the station at that place. The meeting was called to order about 11 o'clock A. M., by the President, Ex-Governor Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth, N. H., who presented in pamphlet form the annual report of the Directors for the past year. The report was read and accepted, from which we make the following synopsis:

The repairs for the past year consist mainly in having laid down twenty thousand new sleepers, and about three hundred tons of new or re-rolled iron, by which the track has been kept in complete order.

About twenty thousand sleepers and four hundred tons of iron, contracts for which have been made and a portion delivered, are estimated as the requirements for the coming year, to keep up the track.

The requisite amount of filling upon the flats at the depot grounds in Portland, near the harbor commissioner's line, was finished the past season, enabling us to build a new turn-table, with a substantial wooden building to cover it; and to put up three additional temporary sheds for the engines, by which they have all been housed the past winter.

As an addition to the pile wharf of 18,034 square feet, with a new drop, has been made the present spring—and the old wall, which was built some years ago, has been carried out to the immediate rear of the new wharf, giving one of the best, if not the best, water front in the city, and when the filling of the remainder of the flats is completed, the ground then made will afford every facility for first class depot accommodations, with yard room sufficient for the large freight business, for which we now have no adequate conveniences.

In our last Report, we spoke of the contemplated erection of an engine house, machine and carpenter's shops with other necessary buildings, on the land of the company, near the westerly end of the Portland bridge.—During the last summer considerable filling of flats was done at that point, and a substantial sea wall, necessary for protection of the same, was commenced upon a line established by the harbor Commissioners, which when completed will give us a very valuable lot in close proximity to the city property.

The great and terrible fire of July last, however, coming at a time when we were just preparing to commence these buildings, had such an effect on the price of materials and labor, and the demands for the same for purposes of shelter for an almost homeless and houseless city, were so much more pressing than our own, as to determine us at once to defer work upon these buildings until another year, and by using the sheds before spoken of, we have gone through the winter with as little inconvenience as the circumstances admitted.

Our car direct loss by the fire was comparatively small, consisting of patterns at the foundry of the Messrs. Staples, amounting to between four and five thousand dollars.

We believe our business on the whole has not been injuriously affected. For a time, large numbers of people, from near and distant points, visited the scene of desolation, taxing the capacity of our trains to provide for them; and the business of re-building has, since the conflagration, been so active in the city, as to keep our rolling stock in great demand in transporting materials, &c.

Desiring to do all in our power to aid in every practicable way, and the calls for laborers being pressing, we put a train upon the road soon after the fire, from Biddeford and Saco, expressly to accommodate mechanics and laborers, giving them convenient hours to do a day's work in the city, and return to their homes at night. This train has carried a large number of workmen during the time, very much to their convenience, and we have thereby materially assisted in building up the waste places.

Work upon the sea wall and filling has been recommenced, and arrangements are in progress to proceed with the buildings at once.—The work of filling, in the city and at the point last spoken of, took the service of a gravel train nearly the whole season, and but little gravelling was done to the road bed.

The gold and silver question, so far as the Eastern Railroad is concerned, remains as heretofore reported. It would be gratifying if this Road would make an offer of compromise, similar to that made by the Boston & Maine on this point—which compromise, offered by the Boston & Maine and accepted by this corporation, has not been carried out, though often demanded.

Under these circumstances we have recently instituted a suit at law against the Boston & Maine for the amount offered as a compromise, believing them to be legally bound.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Directors. ICHABOD GOODWIN, President.

Accompanying the Report is a trial balance of the Ledger accounts of Eliphalet Nott Esq., Treasurer of the company on the first of May last; together with that of Chas. E. Barrett Esq., Auditor of the Treasurers accounts certifying that the same are correct and properly vouched, and that the stock transfers for the year agree with the certificates of the same as surrendered; also a comparitive Table of the receipts and expenditures of the road since 1845. The pamphlet concludes with a copy of the contract made by this corporation with those of the Boston and Maine, and the Eastern R. R., April 1, 1847; made particularly with reference to the gold question which has annually come up since the value of gold has been at a premium above the national scrip.—We give the article in full relative to that subject, in order that the gist of the matter may be fully understood:

SEVENTHLY. It is further agreed by the said party of the second part (The B. & M. and the E. R. R.) with the said party of the first part, (The P. S. & P. R. R. Co.) that the said party of the second part, will, during the continuance of this agency and contract under this indenture, pay, or cause to be paid semi-annually in the months of June and December in each year, to the Treasurer of the said corporation party hereto of the first part, for the time being, for the use of the stockholders of the said corporation, the sum of Three Dollars in gold or silver coin of the currency of the United States, for each and every share of the capital stock of the said corporation.

The meeting then proceeded to ballot for a Board of Directors for the ensuing year. The committee appointed to receive and count the votes, consisted of Wm. H. Hackett, Esq., of Portsmouth, Eliphalet Nott, Esq., of Saco, and Mr. Charles J. Brown, of Rye.

The number of ballots cast was 3,146, all of which were for the following ticket: Directors—Ichabod Goodwin, Portsmouth; George M. Browne, Boston; Francis Cogswell, Andover; Nathaniel Hooper, Boston; Charles E. Barrett, Portland; George W. Burleigh, Great Falls; Stephen H. Bullard, Boston.

Mr. J. S. Fay, of Boston, offered a resolve declaring that the contract for the lease of this road by the Boston & Maine and Eastern Railroad Companies has not been adhered to, in that those corporations have failed to pay the dividends in gold or silver coin according to the terms of the 7th article of the contract, as printed above, and that the Directors are instructed to carry this resolution into effect by taking possession of the road and its effects, and operating the same.

On motion of Hon. Samuel Hooper, of Boston, the above resolution was referred to the Board of Directors with instructions to them to examine this whole subject, and authorizing them to report the result of their investigation at a special meeting of the stockholders, to be called for the purpose of considering the matter at a period not later than six months following.

W. H Y. Hackett, Esq., of Portsmouth, offered a resolve, which was adopted, instructing the Directors to ascertain and report at the special meeting to be called for the purpose, whether this corporation has any legal remedy against the B. & M. and E. R. R., for non-payment of the semi-annual dividend or rental in coin.

Peter T. Homer, Esq., Doct. Kittredge, of New Market, Mr. Hooper and others, offered remarks upon this question.

Some discussion then ensued upon the matter of adjusting the relative claims of all the roads in interest in regard to a proper division of receipts for merchandise, as passed over the several roads, which was participated in by Mr. Hooper of Boston, President Coggswell of Andover, of the B. & M. road, and President Browne of Boston, of the Eastern road, but no action was taken thereon.

Gov. Goodwin remarked that the P. S. & P. road had fully and scrupulously kept up to the terms of their contract in every respect, and so had both the other companies except in regard to the payment of the rental in coin, and that the best of feeling has always existed between all the several roads.

The meeting then adjourned. Subsequently the Board of Directors organized for the year by the choice of the old officers, Hon. I. Goodwin, President; E. Nott, Esq., Treasurer; Charles E. Barrett, Esq., Clerk.

The building in which the meeting was held is one that will be found very convenient for future meetings, and it may also be used by the towns people for social and festival occasions, while the basement of it is already let for business purposes.

CITY AFFAIRS.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last evening.

IN BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN.

The Mayor being absent, Alderman Giddings, President of the Board, assumed the Chair.

The Committee on Police reported upon petition of Levi Weymouth & als. for a policeman to be stationed on Congress street, near the Westbrook line, that the same was inexpedient, and that petitioners have leave to withdraw.

The same Committee reported that it is inexpedient to increase the police force of the city, and that Waldron, True & als., petitioners, have leave to withdraw.

The same Committee, on petition of John W. Munger & als., that William Hayes may be appointed a policeman, reported that the same is inexpedient and that the petitioners have leave to withdraw.

The Committee on Laying out New Streets, on petition of Charles Clark & als., that Henry street may be extended to Cumberland street, reported that is inexpedient and that petitioners have leave to withdraw.

The Committee on Public Buildings reported in favor of the plan of converting the second story of engine houses into dwelling houses for the use of enginemen, but recommend that the work be postponed to some future time, when it can be done more advantageously and receive a larger share of the attention of the Committee than they can give at the present time.

The same Committee, on petition of John Lynch and J. F. Miller, reported in favor of granting the free use of the room over the police office, in the city building, which was formerly occupied by the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, to the Portland Institute and Public Library, and that suitable shelves be constructed in the room, at the expense of the city, for the convenience of said Institute.

The same Committee, on petition of members of Casco Steam Fire Engine Company, for the use of the hall over the City Liquor Agency, reported adversely to the same, and that petitioners have leave to withdraw.

The Committee on Streets, Sidewalks and Bridges reported against allowing the well on Wilmot street to remain; also, against a sidewalk on the North side of Portland street; also, in favor of grading Vesper street; also, in favor of notifying certain property owners on South, Brackett and Casco streets to lay sidewalks in front of their lots; also, that it is inexpedient to establish the grade of Walnut and Willis streets.

The Committee on Fire Department reported against granting a license to Fr. Goth to keep gunpowder; also, that it is inexpedient to organize a hand engine company, as prayed for by C. J. Pennell & als.

The Committee on Drains and Sewers reported it inexpedient to grant the petition of Allen Haines for the extension of the sewer in India street to the Atlantic House; also, inexpedient to grant the petition of Charles Fobes & als. for sewer in High street. They also reported in favor of a sewer in Newbury street as prayed for by J. G. Floyd & als.

All of the above mentioned reports were accepted.

Petitions Presented and Referred—Of Rufus Deering & als. for a sewer in Deering street, from Henry street, to connect with the sewer now being built in High street; of Luther Sterling & als. that one or more policemen may be stationed upon Peak's Island during all, or such portion of the year, as may be thought proper; of William Hennessey & 73 als., for increase of pay of firemen to $60 per annum, [referred to a special committee]; of W. Winship for lamp post at corner of Carleton and West streets, [referred to Committee on Street Lamps with power]; of John H. Kimball & als., that Brattle street be continued to intersect Kennebec street; of Wm. Willard & als., for extension of sewer in Newbury street; of Martha Campbell for remuneration for damages in the grading of Church street; of F. E. Pray & als., for sidewalk on Carleton street.

Orders Passed—To pay Eunice Shapleigh $180 as damage for land taken in the extension of Federal street; authorizing the construction of a sewer in Newbury street; that the Committee on Streets be instructed to improve Walnut, Willis and Vesper streets; directing notice to be given to land owners on South, Brackett and Casco streets to lay sidewalks in front of their lots in said streets; directing the Committee on Laying out Streets to lay out a new street commencing at the Arsenal on the Western Promenade and running Northwesterly to Congress street.

Petition of Frank D. Moore, 1st Assistant Civil Engineer, for an addition of $200 to his salary—making it $1000—was laid on the table. Subsequently the petition was referred to the Committee on Laying out Streets.

Order of notice was voted upon petition of N. A. Foster et als. for permission to place a stationary steam engine in the Printers' Exchange, on Exchange street.

C. W. Holmes was licensed as Auctioneer for the ensuing year.

The City Auditor, M. A. Blanchard, Esq., presented his estimate of the receipts and expenditures of the city for the current municipal year. He estimates the receipts from all sources, independent of taxes, at $77,000; and the expenditures at $756,143. The report was referred to a joint select committee.

An order was passed directing enquiry as to whether the Portland & Kennebec Railroad Company has fulfilled its agreement as to changing the grade of Congress street and has settled the damages sustained by abutters; and what action can be taken to cause them to do so, and also to compel them to construct proper cattle guards.

An ordinance was passed providing for the raising of a fund for the purpose of improving Evergreen Cemetery. Adjourned.

P. A. and N. Union.

The members of this organization held a very enthusiastic meeting at their hall last evening, at which some twenty-five names were added to the list of members. We rejoice to know of the healthy growth and flourishing condition of this Society, which now numbers nearly 400 of the best blood of Maine.

The following letters were received by the Secretary, which speak volumes for the kind interest felt by those even not connected with the Society:—

PORTLAND, May 30, 1867.

Officers and members of Portland Army and Navy Union:—

GENTLEMEN:—I enclose a receipted bill for signs, which you will find in their appropriate places at the approaches to your hall.

I ask your acceptance of these specimens of my hand labor, as the only token within my power to bestow, of my appreciation of your patriotic services for our common country, and my approval of the avowed objects of your Association. Yours, very respectfully,

OLIVER S. BEALE.

The following is the reply of the Secretary:

PORTLAND, June 4.

OLIVER S. BEALE:—Dear Sir: I am instructed by the Portland Army and Navy Union to transmit to you the expression of their feeling upon the receipt of the useful and elegant present, which was first brought to their knowledge by your accompanying letter, received last evening.

The Union tender you their hearty thanks for the delicate manner in which you have chosen to show your appreciation and approval of the objects for which they have united, and the manner in which they have carried out their plans.

They will look upon your gift as a "sign" that they stand high in the esteem of you and your fellow citizens, which, surely, is a token that they have not failed in the labor they undertook to perform.

Again accept the thanks of the Portland Army and Navy Union; and with assurances of esteem, permit me to sign myself, for the Union,

Respectfully Yours,
F. G. PATTERSON, Secretary.

The thanks of the Society were then unanimously voted to Mr. O. S. Beale for his kind donation, and it was also voted that a copy of the letters be tendered to the daily papers for publication.

The Secretary then announced the receipt of a splendid framed engraving—"The Death Bed of Lincoln," as a present from Arthur M. Sawyer, late of the 19th Maine Reg't and a member of the Association.

On motion, the thanks of the Union were voted to Mr. Sawyer for his handsome gift; which was displayed to the meeting, creating much feeling.

The following gentlemen were chosen as delegates to the State Convention, which meets in this city to-day:

F. E. Shaw, J. F. Ladd, Alexander Bell, Paul Chadbourne, Dr. S. C. Gordon, Henry M. Meek, Charles E. Somerby, Wm. E. Thomes Horace A. Smith, Charles L. McAllister, John D. Williams, Rishworth Rich, A. H. Edwards, William H. Green. Wm. H. Sargent.

On motion, Paul Chadbourne was appointed a Committee to procure badges, to be worn by the members on the approaching anniversary The meeting then adjourned.

DRAMATIC.—Bourcicault's new comedy, entitled "How She Loves Him," was produced for the first time in Portland last evening. There is nothing novel in the plot or characters. There is Sir Richard English, the traditional nabob, who has bestowed his immense fortune upon Miss Atlanta Cruiser, a Di Vernon-ish young lady, who in turn has bestowed her wealth, of affection, upon a youngster who calls himself Richard Hartley, but turns out to be a disinherited son of Sir Richard's. Then there are Mr. and Mrs. Vacil, who have been divorced and wish they hadn't, and there is Capt. Yawley, a reproduction of Lord Dundreary, who is making love to Mrs. Vacil. Lady Selina Raffleticket, a widow of decided business talent, serves to bind together these two plots, which proceed together at Sir Richard's country house. Lady Selina brings about a reconciliation between Sir Richard and his son, another reconciliation between Mr. and Mrs. Vacil, and dispose of poor Yawley by taking him herself. The acting was capital. Mr. Wallack's conscious folly as Vacil was finely contrasted with Mr. Davenport's utter vacuity as Yawley. Mrs. Davenport played Lady Raffleticket with a graceful ease entirely her own, and Miss Jordan, as Atlanta Cruiser, gave us the only bit of rant for the evening together with a good deal of charming and natural acting. Placide found scope for his talents as Diogenes, the Irish servant of Sir Richard, with whom he quarrelled constantly without a thought of leaving him. Mr. M. Lanagan's Sir Richard was admirably done. In short it was a delightful entertainment.

A little delay occurred at the beginning of the evening, which was occasioned by a failure to receive some of the properties, and will not recur. This evening the same company will play "Othello." It is hardly necessary to say that people who want seats must apply early.

LENTS' CIRCUS IN NEW YORK, which exhibits here on Thursday and Friday next, is an establishment of so great a reputation that it cannot fail to attract throngs of visitors, especially as the attractions announced are of the most brilliant and diversified character, the present season. Permanently established in New York during the greater part of the year, it occupies the usual summer vacation by a flying trip by railway to principal towns, east and west, the entire mammoth troupe from the New York establishment joining in the tour. The splendid stud of horses and ponies also journey by rail, and come before the public fresh and unwearied. Among the novelties of this exhibition is a magnificent specimen of the Rocky Mountain buffalo, which Mr. Ducrow uses for a hurdle act, the animal having been trained to leap bars and gates in the most daring style. Wherever this company has been the papers speak in the highest terms of the performances, and of the good management displayed in relation to the comfort and convenience of the audience. No side-shows are allowed with the New York Circus, and especial care is taken to make such arrangements in regard to the general regulation of the pavilion, both interiorly and exteriorly as to render it an attractive and agreeable resort for ladies and family parties, while the entertainments are noted for the absence of all objectionable features, it being the aim of the management so to conduct the exhibition as to secure the patronage and good will of the most respectable portion of the community. The New York Circus exhibits at Biddeford to-morrow and will arrive here on Thursday morning.

IN COMMISSION.—While in Kittery yesterday, we took occasion to make a flying visit to the Navy Yard, and found matters very busy there. The ship of the line Minnesota was put into commission yesterday under Commodore Alden, an excellent and accomplished officer, and she is expected to sail soon for the Mediterranean, stopping at France with the graduating class of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis on board. We had the pleasure to inspect the various portions of the extensive grounds under the direction of Francis Bacon, Esq., clerk of the commandant, Admiral Bailey. We came to the conclusion that the people of Maine have a very indefinite idea of the extent of this naval station at the extreme westerly limit of our State.

RAILROAD EXCURSION.—A party consisting of Hon. John B. Brown, John Neal, Esq., Hon. John Lynch, Hon. Samuel E. Spring, Gen. Samuel J. Anderson, Hon. Augustus E. Stevens, William Deering, Esq., H. N. Jose, Esq., and Hon. Israel Washburn, Jr., of this city, and Hon. Charles J. Gilman, of Brunswick, with other gentlemen, will start this morning from Boston, in company with Vermonters and others, for a trip over the New Hampshire, Vermont, Northern New York and back through the Notch of the White Mountains. We have a reporter with them, who will furnish us with an account of their journey, and the prospects for the new railroads contemplated.

CIRCUS.—Stone, Rosston & Murray's Circus and great troupe of Artistes will make their entry into the city this morning, and will give exhibitions on the grounds at the corner of Portland and Green streets, this afternoon and evening. These will be the only performances by this troupe in this city as to-morrow they perform in Brunswick. The company and the performances are highly spoken of by the press in every city. The Washington Star says:—"It more than realizes the anticipations we had formed from the spirit and enterprise of its popular proprietors, and the widely famed talent of its chief artistes."

CALIFORNIA FLOUR.—It will be noticed by advertisement that Messrs. O'Brion, Pierce & Co., have received another lot of 1000 barrels of California flour. It is direct from San Francisco by steamship via the Isthmus of Panama, and has been but 45 days on the passage.

This flour is of the same excellent quality as that heretofore imported by this firm, and is ground from wheat selected especially for them, at the Pacific mills. So purchasers may be assured they are not getting an inferior article. All who have used the California flour imported by O'Brien, Pierce & Co., speak in terms of highest praise of the article, and consider it equal to the best of Southern brands.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—Wm. M. Leavitt has sold his 2 1-2 story wooden house, No. 4 St. Lawrence street, to John T. Hull, for $2000.

Capt. B. M. Redlon has sold his 1 1-2 story house, corner of Brackett and M streets, to Mrs. Jacobs, for $2300.

Col. C. B. Merrill has sold the house in the Park Street Block, corner of Gray street, to Mr. Sargent of Yarmouth—price $12,000. It is to be occupied as a first class boarding house.

CHILD MISSING.—Freddie Golden, five years old, and the son of a poor woman living on Munjoy, strayed away from home about six o'clock on Saturday night, and is still missing. He was last seen in company with a lad of about the same age, named John Charlton. W. Leover is instrumental in returning this boy to his home will receive the gratitude of his almost distracted mother.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Sunday night a boat crew from one of the boat clubs took one of their large row boats for practice. Down of Marine Hospital Point the boat struck a rock knocking a large hole in the bow and sinking her instantly. The crew swam to land, and had the pleasure of a long walk in drenched garments.

LICENSING BOARD.—At a meeting of the Licensing Board last evening, licenses were granted to Isaac E. Allen, N. J. Davis and J. G. Perry as inn-holders, and to Wm. Finch, Ephraim Gammon, Elisha Higgins, Jr., R. H. Waite, John Wall, Jr., George W. Keeley, E. W. Hunt, as victualers.

ATTEMPT AT INCENDIARISM.—We are informed that on Saturday night an attempt was made to burn the apothecary shop of Mr. Mark, on Munjoy, by kindling a fire under the steps. The fire was discovered by the gas-lighter when he went to extinguish the lamps, and he put it out.

W. C. MONTGOMERY, at No. 4 Casco Street, is selling boots and shoes at prices that will compare favorably with those before the war. He has also made arrangements for doing repairing at much less than the usual rates.—Competition is the life of business.

ROGERS & DEERING, at No. 170 Commercial street, have established themselves in the wood and coal business, and are prepared to sell on as favorable terms as any others in the business.

FIGHT.—Yesterday afternoon a fellow somewhat intoxicated got up a fight in a shop at the foot of Union street. Officer Gerts interfered and, after restoring order, marched off the principal offender to the lockup.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.—The meeting of the Board, called for last evening, was adjourned, for want of a quorum, to next Saturday evening, June 6th.

REMOVED.—The office of the Collector of Internal Revenue has removed to the Arlmæum building on Plum street.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY FOR INVESTMENT.—Attention is called to the sale, at auction, of a house and furniture on Munjoy Hill.

AUGUSTA HOUSE.—Mr. J. H. Kling has taken the Augusta House at Augusta, and, as a commencement, has reduced the price of board to $2 and $2.50 per day, with free carriages for guests to and from the house to cars and steamers. It is his intention to keep a house that shall be a credit to the State capital, and to make it the true home of the sojourner while in that city, conducting it upon such a liberal system that all travellers shall be satisfied. The house is large, commodious and pleasantly situated, and with the kind and friendly attention that will be bestowed upon guests by the worthy landlord, in connection with the appointments of the hotel, every one who stops there will feel that he is no stranger.

THE Soldiers and Sailors Convention will meet at the hall of the Portland Army and Navy Union, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

—A few days since, as Mrs. Knight and two other women were attempting to cross the railroad at the north end of the Bryant Pond depot, and just in front of an engine standing on the turnout, their horse became unmanageable and ran across the road, precipitating the whole party against a pile of wood, and severely injuring Mrs. Knight, cutting her face badly and giving her an ugly wound just below the knee. The other women were unhurt.

—The Ellsworth American says: "We had a call on We'nesday from A. C. McKenzie and Mr. A. J. Tibbets, of Indian river. Mr. K. is one of the publishers of the "Sword of Truth," the organ of the Jaffa colonists. —The Eastport Sentinel says that a little son about three years of age, of Mr. Armstrong of Perry, wandered from the house last Saturday, to the beach in company with an older brother, and while playing ran into the water and was drowned, before his father, who was close behind, could reach him.

—The Kennebec Journal says that the A. & W. Sprague Manufacturing Company have laid out and are grading a large brick-yard on the west side of the river above the Dam where they are to manufacture bricks by water power, to be used in the construction of mills hereafter to be built.

NEW MEDICAL BOOK.
"Family Physician,"
IN PRINT,
BY DR. SAMUEL SHELDON FITCH, A. M. M. D.
The Author of numerous Medical Works.

HIS six lectures on the Prevention and cure of Consumption—Diseases of the Heart—and rules to preserve Health and Life to a hundred years—have been read by thousands, and have carried hope to all friends, and health to all who have fulfilled its teachings.

Dr. Fitch's aim in this new book is to direct habits so as to avoid indisposition—to manage indisposition so as to prevent disease—and to disease so as to restore health. He would cure a hacking cough, and thus prevent consumption; he would cure a husky throat, and thus stop croup or diphtheria; he would regulate a disordered state of the stomach and bowels, and thus stay dysentery and cholera; but should any diseases supervene, he at once comes to our aid with the exact remedies necessary to a prompt cure. He gives first at those diseases which the sick have not well doctor, but which require the aid of a capable physician, and that when properly and timely treated, are almost invariable. The diseases he says are Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Liver Complaints, Piles, Kidney Complaints, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Skin Diseases, and all diseases and discolorations, freckles, moths, &c. which attack and destroy the complexion.

The second great class of diseases, which the patient or his friends can always doctor, and for which infallible remedies are given, are Diphtheria, Croup, Scarlet Fever, Measles, Whooping Cough, Typhoid Fever, Dysenctry, Asiatic Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Diarrhœa of adults and children, Colds, Congestion of the Lungs, Lung Fever, Burns, Erysipelas, &c. Remedies for each of these are given, which the sick or their friends can prepare and successfully administer.

He next gives the proper treatment of the Hair and Teeth, so as to preserve both in health and beauty through life. He next gives

The President's Southern Tour.

WELDON, N. C., June 3.

The President and party left Richmond between 3 and 4 o'clock. On arriving at Petersburg they were met by the Mayor and General Stoneman, and here breakfasted. The Mayor expressed the pleasure of the citizens in having them for their guests, and said to the President they would be much gratified if the party would on their return trip remain longer in Petersburg than on this occasion, in order that there might be an extension of hospitalities.

The President expressed his thanks for their kind reception, and hoped he might in future be able to reciprocate.

Weldon was reached at 10 A. M.

The President was received at the depot by the following named officers: State Treasurer Battle, Secretary of State Bass, Comptroller Burgin, U. S. Marshal Goodloe, and also by a committee of the City Council. Mr. Battle, in addressing the President, said:

"Mr. President—In behalf of the people of North Carolina it is my grateful province to welcome you to our State. Born and raised to manhood on our soil, you, forty years ago, left our borders to battle with difficulties and strive for the rewards of the great West. After being crowned with the most distinguished honors by Tennessee, the daughter of North Carolina, you have, by the aid of the people of the United States reached the highest point to which human ambition can attain. We believe you have, with singular intrepidity, used the powers of your great office with a sincere desire to heal the wounds and advance the prosperity of our common country. On this your return to revisit the scenes of your early days we extend to you a cordial greeting as our President, our fellow citizen and our friend."

The President replied:

"I have no language adequate to express my feelings and emotions on this occasion. I shall not now recur to the scenes of my early life, for it has not been my intention or desire to make any general remarks on this tour, but simply to acknowledge and express my sincere thanks for the manifestations of respect of my fellow citizens. I acknowledge to you, sir, and those whom you represent, gratitude for the welcome which you have thus given to me. I must leave you and others to infer what I ought to have said if I had ventured upon a full reply to the remarks which you have made. Again, gentlemen, I sincerely and heartily thank you."

Mr. Battles then said:

"Mr. Secretary of State and Postmaster General—I am likewise commissioned to offer you a cordial welcome to our State. We earnestly hope that in your progress you will also pass your time agreeably, and on your return will retain pleasant impressions of our people and State."

Secretary Seward replied:—I can certainly say for myself, for I do not undertake to speak for Mr. Postmaster General Randall, that here at the threshhold of North Carolina I find myself under a peculiar embarrassment. I find the Secretary of States of the United States overshadowed by the Secretary of State of North Carolina. (This produced laughter in the crowd, owing to the marked contrast in weight and statue between the two Secretaries, the North Carolina Secretary being six feet four inches and a half and heavy in proportion.) Mr. Seward resumed. I hope my esteemed associate will not meet with similar embarrassment through this State. I came here with the President with pride and satisfaction on the visit to his native State. Pride and satisfaction because he has honored me with his confidence in the administration, and satisfaction because I can bear testimony before the people among whom he was born, as I always cheerfully do before the people of my own native State, the people of our common country and the world, that his only objects are the restoration of peace, harmony and prosperity throughout the Union; satisfied still more because I believe his conduct of public affairs has been in all respects not only patriotic but wise and benevolent. I thank you for this cordial reception in the name of the authorities of North Carolina. All the world know that we of the National Administration hold all the federal States closely within their constitutional spheres. On the other hand, it becomes us to show, as I trust we shall while we remain here, respect for all the proper rights of North Carolina with loyalty and submission to the constitutional authorities of this ancient and honored Commonwealth.

Postmaster General Randall said:

"I also return my thanks. The only reason I suppose, I am not overshadowed is because there is but one Postmaster General. Like my friend, the Secretary of State, I also have much pride in visiting North Carolina; proud because I come to visit the birth-place of the honorable President of this great nation, proud because the office of President is higher than any place occupied by any potentate of the Old World, and because all may see the most prominent man who represents the power and institutions of the people, and because he, after the tribulations through which we have passed, has an earnest hope that prosperity in all its fullness will follow the peace which now prevails throughout the land, and that we may in all respects be a united people, speaking with one voice, and that voice for the glory and prosperity of the nation. I know this is the feeling which animates the President as well as the great mass of the American people; their hope and prayer being that we may have one body, and that a sound one; one faith, and that a stern one, for the glory of the Republic."

The ceremonies having closed, the party resumed their journey. At the several stopping places on the way to Raleigh many persons, white and black, approached the car to shake hands with the President and converse with him. Among other incidents, an old negro woman rushed through the crowd at Warren depot, seized the President by the hand and exclaimed: "Bless de Lord, I've been praying night and day for this day to come, and that I might see de President." A genuine black man came up and introduced himself as Cæzar Johnson, saying: "Dat's a good name." The President pleasantly replied: "Yes, I think so. It will not disgrace you if you do not disgrace it."

RALEIGH, N. C., June 3.

The party arrived at a quarter past 5 o'clock. A large crowd was in waiting. The President was cheered on landing. Gens. Sickles, Burns and Miles were at the depot. Repeated cheers were given in honor of the President. Mayor Haywood addressed the President in a brief speech of welcome, to which the President briefly responded. A procession was formed, the President being accompanied by the military escort. He was cheered as he passed through the principal streets, and on reaching the Tarboroigh Hotel, he proceeded to the portico, and was there introduced to the crowd by Gov. Worth, who introduced him as follows:

"Gentlemen and ladies, I have the honor to introduce to you his excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States. He visits the city of his nativity on invitation of its citizens, to be present at the erection of a monument to commemorate the worth of his father. As the representative of North Carolina, I offer him a cordial welcome from our whole people. I do not deem it appropriate to the occasion to allude to any of the political questions which now divide public opinion. We propose only a tender of respect to the President, in which every true-hearted North Carolinian ought to join. We all desire the restoration of the Constitution as nearly as possible on its old foundation, and, therefore, we all honor our illustrious guest, as posterity will honor him for his intelligent, constant and manly support of constitutional liberty; welcome, then, a hearty welcome, to North Carolina's son, who has rendered himself illustrious by his honest, earnest, unflinching adherence to the Constitution and the Union."

The President was greeted with applause, and after returning thanks for the cordiality of his reception, and alluding to his early life in North Carolina, he said: "This is not the time or occasion to discuss the political issues which distract the public mind, but as allusion has been made to my first going out from among you I may here say that ever since I formed an opinion as to the fundamental principles of the government I have adhered to them and to the Constitution, the Union and the flag of our country. [Applause.] When I went out from among you, and from the time I became connected with politics, I laid down as my rule a conscientious performance of duty, and adopted the Constitution of my country as my guide, [applause] and by these, whether in prosperity or adversity, I have always been guided or controlled, and come weal or woe, in high places or low places, with the Constitution as my guide, with my hand laid on the altar of my country, I will these great principles for those who are to follow. [Applause.] One of my leading tenets has been the prosperity of the great mass of the people, holding that persons without regard to condition or color should be esteemed according to their intrinsic merit or worth, leaving each to rise on his own merit, courage and energy. Let this be the standard so that to every one may be assigned his true position. I trust and hope, instead of discussing party issues, creating factions between North, South, East or West, that all will exert themselves for the restoration of the Union of these States so that the flag may float on a contented and prosperous people. [Applause.] Let us my friends repair the breaches made by the war and restore the Union. This being accomplished, we may then make such issues as the public prosperity and safety may demand. Let us efface from our minds the memory of the past; let us pour oil on the troubled waters and restore peace to the States. This has been my constant object. But let this pass. I simply came to this place in compliance with your invitation to participate in another ceremony, to confer honor upon the memory of one was a few years ago in your midst. This has not emanated, as I understand, from any particular quarter or family. One word to young men. There is much said as to education and advantages, etc., but if any of you wish to succeed, or in common phrase, make yourselves men, you will have to do so through your own exertions. I know some are familiar with the hardships and trials through which I have passed during the time that has elapsed since I left you. It is not for me to say whether I have succeeded or not. Let that be as it may, my race is nearly run. I am no aspirant for anything. The way is open to you for all places of emolument and distinction. There are here a few of those in whose hands the administration of the Government is placed; we are passing away; the next move will bring you young men and women in our places, and our work will fall into other hands; therefore, the greater should be your efforts to prepare yourselves for the responsibilities that must in time devolve upon you. In conclusion, permit me to tender you my thanks for this cordial welcome extended through your distinguished representative, the Governor of the State. Though she sent me out penniless and friendless, and did not afford me those advantages which you now enjoy, and though on returning I cannot do so in the language of my Alma Mater, I can say with pride and satisfaction that she is my mother, and whatever my delinquencies I love her still. Ladies and gentlemen, let me again express my heartiest thanks for the warm and sincere welcome on returning to this, my native city.

The President, as he retired, was repeatedly applauded. Secretary Seward and Postmaster General Randall also spoke after the President, and were enthusiastically applauded, and the assemblage, which was large, after cheering the President, retired from the vicinity of the hotel. The President, in company with Secretary Seward, walked through the streets of Raleigh, pointing out the various and interesting localities, and occasionally stopping to shake hands with an old friend. After the dedication of the monument there will be a State dinner.

Indian Affairs.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 3.

Late Denver papers report that fifteen to eighteen inches of snow and heavy rains fell there between the 15th and 20th of May. The snow is so deep in the mountains that the coach could not go through to Central city.

A boy named George Miller, aged 17 years, who was captured by the Blackfeet Indians in 1865, and stolen by the Cheyennes in the following year, has escaped and reached Denver. He reports five white women held captives, one of them the wife of a doctor at Council Bluffs. The Indians keep thoroughly posted with regard to military movements. They have many Spencer rifles, which they procured from traders. The Indians contemplate a general and simultaneous attack along the Platte early in June.

The Indian Commissioner, Judge Kenney, and party were attacked at Bridge's Ferry on the 15th of May. Capt. Willis, with his troops, gave pursuit, recovered all the stock, and killed one Indian.

The Vote on the Amendment to the Liquor Law.

LEWISTON, June 3.

The vote on the liquor law amendments in this city to-day was light, and resulted as follows: yeas 445; nays 16. Auburn gives 410 yeas to 6 nays.

AUGUSTA, June 3.

What few returns are received indicate that a very light vote has been thrown at the election, which took place in this State to-day, on the adoption of the amendments to the liquor law. The vote, it is estimated, will not reach 25,000. The amendments have undoubtedly been carried by a vote of at least two to one. The vote cast in this city was as follows: yeas 212; nays 65.

BANGOR, June 3.

The vote of this city to-day on the amendments to the liquor law was 398 yeas, 132 nays; about one-fifth of the votes out. The vote throughout the State will be small. The amendments are undoubtedly ratified. We have very few returns.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 3.

The House Committee on the Judiciary adjourned to-day to the 25th inst. The meeting on the 26th is to enable the Committee to meet the improbable contingency of a July session of Congress with a report of its proceedings.—The final vote on the impeachment of the President stood four in favor to five against. Messrs. Boutwell, Williams, Thomas and Lawrence voted aye, and Messrs. Wilson, Woodbridge, Eldridge, Marshall and Churchill nay. A resolution of censure, declaring that the President had been guilty of acts which merit the condemnation of the people, was passed by a vote of seven to two, Messrs. Eldridge and Marshall voting nay.

Fire at Petroleum Centre.

PETROLEUM CENTRE, PA., June 3.

A severe fire occurred here this morning, destroying property in buildings and goods to the estimated amount of $40,000 or $60,000. The fire originated in Job Taylor's house, and was unquestionably the work of an incendiary. Twenty-nine buildings were destroyed, among which was the United States Hotel, the largest building in the place. The largest individual loss is that of Wm. Spence, proprietor of the United States Hotel, and J. & A. Baum, dry goods dealers, who lose some $10,000. The insurance on the property does not exceed $5,000, which is mostly in small risks in different companies.

Death of Distinguished Personages.

BOSTON, June 3.

Lucius Manlius Sargent, the well known author, died in West Roxbury yesterday, aged 81 years.

Rev. Sebastian Streeter, a well known clergyman of the Universalist denomination, died yesterday, aged 84 years.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.

Ernest C. Wallace, long connected with the Evening Bulletin of this city, died this morning at Yonkers, N. Y., of consumption.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, June 3

Juarez's official paper at San Luis Potosi recently published all the official correspondence relative to the safety of Maximilian, and comments upon it in a manner that would seem to imply that the Arch Duke would receive no mercy. Juarez's Generals strongly protested against any clemency towards him.

Indian Affairs.

FORT LARAMIE, June 2.

The Southern Cheyennes crossed the South Platte yesterday, going North. They attacked Pole Creek station, 76 miles West of Fort Sedgwick this morning, 100 strong, and drove off four mules. One Indian was killed. Gen. Augur with reinforcements is on his way to this post.

Heavy Robbery.

BURLINTON, Vt., June 3.

Another robbery was committed here last night. The jewelry store of L. Freeman was broken open and a small safe containing about $2900 worth of watches were carried off. The safe was this morning found by the police buried in a sand bank unopened.

Conviction of Judge Frazier.

NASHVILLE, June 3.

The Senate to-day, acting as the court of impeachment, rendered a verdict of guilty in the case of Judge Frazier. The verdict removes him from office, and also disqualifies him from holding any office hereafter.

Movements of Jeff. Davis.

TORONTO, C. W., June 3.

Jeff. Davis arrived here to-day to attend the wedding of one of his countrymen, which takes place in the St. James Cathedral to-morrow.

F. S. Palmer, names bb. g.		"Gladiator."

THE above Horses are probably the fastest representatives of the trotting families to which they belong, and have appeared upon the turf, via, the Brandys, Eatons and Ethan Drews. So many national trotters have appeared among each of these classes, that they have identified themselves with the stock-raising interests of the States and at home and abroad have distinguished themselves as winners in many a hard fought race. Gladiator made his debut last season, easily beating a field of 5 horses on July 4, was afterwards defeated by being off in condition, but so confidently believed to be now able to compete with any of his class. Sheppard Knapp Jr., has proved himself a good one, having defeated Draco Prince last fall at Mystic Track, Boston, in 2.33, 2.33, 2.34, and has many engagements with some of the best Horses in New England, among which are Fearnaught, Empress, McClellan, Ben. Franklin, John Ferris, Lecense, and other noted Horses, to be trotted the coming season at Boston. Little Fred, of Waterville, a son of Old Drew, has trotted several races with much credit to himself—winning the fifth heat last fall in the mud at Augusta, against the gelding Mac, in 2.37. He also trotted at Waterville, in harness, in 2.36, on a jog, and is in high favor with his friends for the race. This race is for more money than was ever trotted for before in Maine, and it is believed will prove to be the best, fastest and most excitingcontest that could be offered to the patrons of the Forest City Park. Every gentleman who owns a Drew, an Eaton, or a Brandy, throughout the State, should witness this race.

Trotting to commence at 3 o'clock.—Tickets Fifty Cents each.

WILL EXHIBIT AT PORTLAND

On Deering Pasture, foot of Green Street,

Thursday and Friday, June 6 & 7.

THIS WELL KNOWN TROUPE,

the reputation of which will be familiar to all who were in the habit of visiting the City of New York, is permanently located during the greater portion of the year at its colossal Iron Buildings occupying a frontage of one hundred and twenty-five feet on Fourteenth Street, opposite the Academy of Music, and is universally acknowledged to surpass in the number and talent of its Artists, the beauty and thorough training of its Performing Horses and Ponies, and the splendor of its Wardrobe and Paraphernalia any similar exhibition ever brought before the American Public. As the position of this celebrated metropolitan establishment as the Leading Circus of America, is too firmly established to be seriously questioned in any quarter, it is only necessary to state that

The Entire Mammoth Company of the New York Establishment will appear at each representation, and that the performances will be found

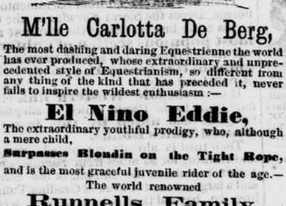
More Varied and Brilliant, than anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic.

THE GALAXY OF STARS

Comprised in this mammoth Company includes



M'lle Carlotta De Berg,

The most dashing and daring Equestrienne the world has ever produced, whose extraordinary and unprecedented style of Equestrianism, so different from any thing of the kind that has preceded it, never fails to inspire the wildest enthusiasm:—

El Nino Eddie,

The extraordinary youthful prodigy, who, although a mere child,

Surpasses Blondin on the Tight Rope, and is the most graceful juvenile rider of the age.—The world renowned

Runnells Family,

who as professors of the Classic School of Gymnastics are without rivals on earth.

James H. Madigan,

THE CHAMPION SOMERSET RIDER, who has no equal on this continent for feats of desperate daring, together with

The Greatest Force of Daring Riders; Accomplished Acrobats; Classic Gymnasts; Comical Clowns; Slack Rope Vaulters; Posture Masters; Equilibrists; Voltigeurs; Tumblers and Pantomimists, ever brought together in this Country, involving

A Greater Expenditure for Salaries

than is incurred by any four traveling companies, and embracing

MORE FIRST CLASS ARTISTS THAN CAN BE found in any Circus in the World.

The Finest Stud of performing Horses. The most Superb Collection of Educated Ponies; And the most Gorgeous Appointments of any Circus in Europe or America.

POETRY.

Five O'Clock in the Morning.

FAREPA'S SONG.

The dew lay on the glittering grass,
A mist lay on the brook;
At the earliest beam of the golden sun,
The swallow herald forsook.
The snowy bloom of the hawthorne tree
Lay thickly the ground adorning;
The birds were singing in every bush,
At five o'clock in the morning.

And Bessie, the milkmaid, merrily sang,
For the meadows were fresh and fair;
The breeze of the morning kissed her brow,
And played with her nut-brown hair;
But oft she turned and looked around,
As if the silence scorning;
'Twas time for the mower to whet his scythe,
At five o'clock in the morning.

And over the meadows the mowers came,
And merry their voices rang;
And one among them wended his way
To where the milkmaid sang;
And, as he lingered by her side,
Despite his comrade's warning,
The old, old story was told again,
At five o'clock in the morning.

A "CLEVER ONE!" They had down in Florida not long since, and perhaps have now, a shrewd old fellow known as "Old Hunter." He was as deaf as a post, and through his deafness and his shrewdness he managed completely to hide his sympathy for either party during the war. It was suspected, however, that he was with the Confederates in heart, and that though his house was guarded by Union troops he sold as many supplies to the one as to the other, for he dealt in "stores." Every means had been tried by the Union officers to procure from him some admission of preference, but of no avail. When reduced to a corner he never lacked an expedient to get himself out. But one day a Union Captain put up a bet that he could tap him and get his secret. He accordingly went up to Hunter's and skirmished around, but not a hint could he get. He would be deaf to questions that were unpleasant and the inquirer was baffled. At last there came two large bull-dogs into his store, fierce fellows, and exactly alike.

"Fine dogs, these," yelled the inquisitor in his ear.

"Yes," was the reply.

"What are their names?" in the same loud tone.

"Why," said the old man, "I call one Beauregard and t'other McClellan."

"You do," shouted the inquirer; "which one do you like the best?"

"Hey?" queried Hunter, putting down his ear.

"Which do you like the best?" was repeated.

"Oh, well," said he, with a twinkle in his eye, "both of 'em are as ugly as the devil."

The captain paid the bet.

On another occasion a party were drinking in his store, when one of them, taking advantage of the old man's deafness, proposed a toast:

"Here's to Old Hunter, the two-sided old villain; may he be kicked to death by mules, and his body be sunk in the sea a hundred fathoms deep. May no prayer be said over him, and may his blind soul wander rayless through all eternity."

The toast was drank in great glee, in which the old man joined.

"The same to yourselves, gentlemen," said he, "the same to yourselves."

Of course he had not heard a word that was said!

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE

MUTUAL BENEFIT Life Insurance Company,

Newark, N. J.

Organized in 1845. Charter Perpetual.

Having paid losses on deceased members amounting to $5,125,425, and declared in Dividends to the living the sum of $6,002,839, with assets well secured amounting to over $12,000,000, has just declared its TWENTIETH annual Dividend, being 50 per cent.

The Annual Income for 1866, was $4,034,855.39.

It continues to issue all classes of Life Policies, at the lowest rates consistent with perfect security to the members. Its distinguishing features are economy in expenditure, and care in its management.

It pays no stockholders for the use of capital, no bonuses or commissions to officers, and no immoderate compensation to agents.

All its Directors attend its meetings, and serve on its committees. Its risks are carefully selected so as to secure sound lives. It is careful in adjusting losses and prompt in payment.

Its funds are invested with regard to security, never hazarding principal for interest; hence it has never lost a dollar on its investments. After paying losses and expenses, and reserving the value of all outstanding policies, it has ALWAYS made an ANNUAL dividend of return premiums to the members, and paid them when due.

It is a "MUTUAL BENEFIT" Company, having but one class of members, all life policies, both new and old, sharing equally in the annual division of surplus, receiving a dividend on every premium paid.

It endeavors, in brief, to act in all respects as a faithful trustee for the members. Having for over twenty years pursued this course, it proposes to continue it in the future, and offers its advantages to all who desire to insure in a Company so conducted.

ASTROLOGY.

WHISKERS and MUSTACHES forced to grow upon the smoothest face in from three to five weeks by using Dr. SEYGNE'S RESTAURATEUR DE PHILAIRE, the most wonderful discovery in modern science, acting upon the Beard and Hair in an almost miraculous manner. It has been used by the elite of Paris and London with the most flattering success. Names of all purchasers will be registered, and if entire satisfaction is not given in every instance, the money will be cheerfully refunded. Price by mail, sealed and postpaid, $1. The World Astonished

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of your person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to them as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Know Thy Destiny.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope, addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. CITY NOTICES.

City of Portland.

In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven:

An Ordinance amending the Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance regulating Hackney Coaches and Omnibuses:"

Be it ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Portland, in City Council assembled, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9 of the Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance regulating Hackney Coaches and Omnibuses," is hereby amended by striking out all of said section which requires such carriages to carry lighted lamps when driven or used in the night time. Also, by striking out the words "and driver," after the words "owner," in the next clause, and inserting in said clause, between the words "man" and "name" the words "the date of inspection and," and also inserting in said clause, between the words "carriages" and "is," the words "by the City Marshal at the time of inspections," so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows, to wit: "Section 9. Hackney carriages shall be marked and numbered in the manner following, viz., every hack or hackney licensed, shall be marked upon the outside and upon each side of the sill or rockers, immediately below the doors, with the number of the license, with white, glided or plated figures, in the Arabic character, or not less than one inch and a half in size on a dark ground, or with a dark figure of the same size on a light ground, and no other figure or device within four inches of the same. Stage coaches shall be numbered in like manner, on the top rail of the doors. Omnibuses shall be numbered in like manner, on the lower panel of the door. The name of the owner, and the number of the license, together with the date of inspection and rates of fare, shall be printed on a card of suitable size, and placed in all hackney carriages by the City Marshal at the time of inspection. The same shall be conspicuously placed in the carriage, for the information of passengers. And if any owner or driver of any hackney carriage shall use or drive the same without such number, or permit the same to be used and driven, without complying with the foregoing requisitions, said owner and driver shall each be liable to a fine of not less than two nor more than twenty dollars for each offence."

Section 2. Section 11 of said Ordinance is hereby repealed.

Section 3. Section 17 of said Ordinance is hereby amended by striking out the words "between the hours of 4 o'clock A. M. and 11 o'clock P. M., not exceeding 35 cents, and from 11 o'clock P. M. to 4 o'clock A. M. not exceeding forty cents," and inserting instead thereof the words "not exceeding fifty cents at any hour of the day or night," and by inserting between the words "named" and "more," the words "that he may carry," and inserting between the words "receive" and "five" the words "not exceeding twenty," and by inserting between the words "section" and "they" in the last clause of said section, the words "or shall willfully refuse to answer the demand of any person or persons for conveyance from one place to another within the city," so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows, to wit: "Section 17. The prices or rates of fare to be taken by, or paid to the owner, driver, or other person having charge of any hackney carriage, except omnibuses, shall be as follows, that is to say, for carrying a passenger from one place to another within the city, not exceeding fifty cents at any hour of the day or night; for any distance, not less than one and twelve years if more than one, or if accompanied by an adult, half price; only is to be charged for each child; and for children under four years of age, when accompanied by their parents or an adult, no charge is to be made. Every owner, driver, or other person having charge of any hackney carriage, shall carry in addition to one trunk, two articles, such as a valise, saddle bag, carpet bag, portmanteau, box, bundle, or other similar articles used in traveling, if he be requested so to do, without charge or compensation therefor, for every additional trunk, or similar article he may carry, he shall be entitled to charge, in addition to the foregoing, twenty-five cents. If any driver or other person shall demand or receive any greater sum for their services as specified in this section, or shall willfully refuse to answer the demand of any person or persons for conveyance from one place to another within the city, they shall forfeit and pay for so doing a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence."

Section 4. Section 18 of said Ordinance is hereby amended so that said section shall read as follows, to wit: "Section 18. The City Marshal shall inspect all hackney carriages before a license is granted for use of the same, and also upon the first Monday in July and January in each year. And the owners of licensed hackney carriages shall cause them to be presented to the City Marshal for inspection upon the days above mentioned, at such hour and place as the City Marshal may appoint, and the City Marshal shall cause notice to be given of the time and place at which he will inspect such carriages, at least one week prior to the first Monday in July and January in each year. If any owner of any such licensed hackney carriage shall neglect to present the same for inspection as above provided for, his license to the use of such carriage shall be suspended until such inspection shall be made, and if upon inspection any carriage is found in an unsuitable condition, either as regards strength, general good order, or cleanliness in any of its appointments for the safe and comfortable conveyance of passengers, the City Marshal shall notify the owner thereof to place such carriage in proper repair, and the license of such carriage shall be suspended until the required repairs shall have been made to the satisfaction of the City Marshal.

Section 6. All Ordinances, or parts of Ordinances, inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, are hereby repealed.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall take effect from and after its approval by the Mayor.

Lea & Perrins'

CELEBRATED

Worcestershire Sauce!

PRONOUNCED BY Connoisseurs To be The "Only Good Sauce!" And applicable to EVERY VARIETY OF DISH.

EXTRACT of a letter from a Medical Gentleman at Madras, to his Brother at Worcester, May, 1851.

"Tell Lea & Perrins that their Sauce is highly esteemed in India, and is in my opinion the most palatable and as well as the most wholesome Sauce that is made."

The success of this most delicious and unrivaled condiment having caused many unprincipled dealers to apply the name to Spurious Compounds, the public is respectfully and earnestly requested to see that the names of LEA & PERRINS are upon the Wrapper, Label, Stopper and Bottle.
